We hope that in joining the business you will enjoy a longterm career with Motordrive and be part of our exciting journey in this high profile sector.

Main Responsibilities:

First and foremost you will be managing a small team to manufacture high specification FIA motorsport seats, including the manufacture of the shells the upholstery of seats and sewing of the covers. For the right candidate there is also the opportunity to interact with customers directly, including at motorsport events, to provide sales support and promote the motordrive brand.

A determination to provide quality products and service is fundamental to the ethos of Motordrive and every member of the team must demonstrate their commitment to delivering the very best. The Operations Manager must be up for a challenge, be prepared to deal with an ever changing landscape, be hands on and be able to motivate others. There is nowhere to hide in our team - we work hard together, succeed together and think of ourselves as a family.

Responsibilities will include managing and processing:

- team management
- seat shell manufacture
- upholstering seats to customer requirements
- quality and performance management
- stock management
- dispatch operations
- health and safety
- sales support

To apply for this role, you will need to be:

- reliable
- trustworthy
- hard working and able to manage a variety of tasks under pressure
- a team player with a positive attitude
- a quick learner who strives for continuous improvement
- have a keen eye for detail and quality
- personable and professional

- practical and prepared to be hands on in manufacturing operations
- able to work independently
- an appetite to succeed

We welcome applicants of all ages and experience levels for this role in the Motordrive family. Your personal qualities and drive are as important to us as your skills and experience. This role would particularly suit someone with an interest in motorsport .

The salary for this role is subject to negotiation, with opportunities for the right candidate to develop with the business.
